

Georgia Clients Council in partnership with Georgia Legal Services and other allies work directly and indirectly on issues impacting poverty have thirty-three years of accomplishments:

Educate communities on state and federal programs for low income recipients

Secured more than seven million dollars in community development block grant funding for housing, rehabilitation, water & sewage system, paving streets in Adel, Claxton, Jesup, and Sylvester Georgia

Collaborated with allies to build 194 housing units in Soperton and Jesup Georgia

Produces a newsletter reaching over 3,000 people in and out of Georgia

Provides referral and technical assistance for several micro-enterprise ventures

Coordinate Georgia Legal Aid Website training to those individuals and organizations needing legal assistance

Provides advocacy support by skilled advocates on a variety of issues.

Makes referrals to Georgia Legal Services for issues needing legal representation expanded in part by funding from Sapelo Foundation for the "Justice Builders Project"

Distribute refurbished computers to members statewide in an effort to bridge the digital divide

Provide job readiness classes for New Connection to Work Program at Athens Technical College

Provide training, technical support and outreach to several Latino organizations

Updated the statewide Advocacy Training Model

- Created and support several community economic development projects, including the "Claiming a Street Named King Project". Several programs are funded and/or supported in part by a grant from USDA and the School of Environmental Design at the University of Georgia. To view the project, click here. You can change slides by using the arrow keys.